This brand new, modern furnished Prestige Avanti (45'x20') is perfect for those looking for a detached, easy to maintain, bungalow style property. The home has a spacious kitchen with integrated appliances, island and dining area, leading through to the comfortable living room and study. The master bedroom has an en suite and built in wardrobes, there is a second double bedroom and an en suite.

At this development you'll find a clubhouse with weekly entertainment and frequent events. And for those who don't drive a community bus is available, for a small annual fee, making it easy for residents to visit local towns including Basildon, Billericay, Pitsea, Wickford and Laindon. This perfectly located development lies just outside the M25, in rural surroundings between Basildon and Brentwood - ideally situated for those who want to be near London, but also in the countryside.
