This pre-owned, affordable Omar Regency park home is perfect for those looking for a detached, easy to maintain, bungalow-style property. The vacant and unfurnished home has a kitchen with an oven and washing machine, separate living room with a fireplace, one double bedroom with wardrobe space and a shower room.

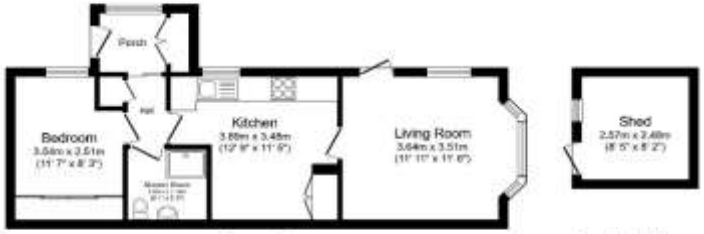

The park is located one minute's walk from the village of Wilmcote. The residents' social club on-site organises day trips and meals out. There is also a bus stop outside the park. Wilmcote is home to Mary Arden's house and a handful of old Elizabethan pubs. You can also find amenities here including a post office, church, tea rooms, shop, and train station. Wilmcote is 4 miles from Stratford Upon Avon with all large town facilities and amenities.
